Saint Louis Crisis Nursery received a $50,000 gift from the Daughters of Charity Healthcare Foundation of St. Louis, according to a release.

The donation will allow Crisis Nursery to provide a safe haven for children with developmental, physical or behavioral disabilities, and offer them time away from stressful home environments that could jeopardize their safety and early childhood development, according to the release.

The Saint Louis Crisis Nursery provides counseling to families in St. Louis, St. Charles, Southern Illinois and surrounding areas. It also provides a short-term safe haven for children, from birth through age 11, whose families are faced with crisis.
